World-Check to present AML and CFT seminar in Paris, France on 16 March

London, 24 January 2010 -- World-Check will be presenting a specialist seminar in Paris for industry practitioners on emerging money laundering threats, combating the financing of terrorism tools, and best practice AML risk management procedures.

Key speaker at the event is Mr. Kenneth Rijock, World-Check's financial crime consultant. Mr. Rijock is a former money launderer and banking lawyer, turned financial crime consultant, and author of the widely-read "From a Different Angle," World-Check's early warning feature column. With more than 25 years of experience in the field, Mr. Rijock consults with law enforcement and the financial services industry, and assisted the first joint Swiss-American investigation of bankers and lawyers, which resulted in a major seizure of the proceeds of crime.

World-Check industry events provide an opportunity for knowledge exchange and discussion with leading risk and law enforcement experts. Geared towards day-to-day AML and CFT compliance processes with contents that are detailed and rigorous, the World-Check seminars have been held in over 50 cities since 2006. More than 600 compliance professionals attended the seminars held in 2009, which featured speakers including World-Check's Chief Executive Officer, Daniel Peak; Financial Crime Consultant Kenneth Rijock, and Head of Terrorism and Insurgency Research, John Solomon.
